

Independent Schools
Council of Australia

Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

28 June 2010

ISCA Congratulates Crean as Minister for Education

The Independent Schools Council of Australia (ISCA) has welcomed the appointment of the Hon. Simon Crean MP to the position of Minister for Education, Employment and Workplace Relations.

ISCA Executive Director, Mr Bill Daniels said that he looked forward to working with Mr Crean on education related issues, with specific focus on the independent schools sector.

Mr Daniels said, “There are a number of important issues in schooling policy including the transparency agenda and the review of schools funding. We look forward to building a cooperative relationship with Mr Crean and will continue to work constructively with the Gillard Government as these issues develop.”

Ends

Contact: James Mathews 0407 416 002

